Notes

Chapter notes, problem solutions, and general information about the course are posted on Moodle. It is important for students to print out the lesson notes and bring them to class.

Online quizzes must be completed prior to each chapter being covered in class. Quiz due dates will not be extended for any reason.

There are four cases assigned and they must be submitted on the due dates specified.

Students are expected to write mid-term and final examinations at the scheduled times and dates; medical certificate or other supporting documentation will be required for approval of out-of-time exams. The final exam is 20% comprehensive

Required Texts/Resources

Cost Accounting: A Managerial Emphasis Sixth Canadian Edition, C. Horngren, G. Foster, S. Datar, M. Gowing, Pearson Prentice Hall, 2013.

Calculator

Students will require a financial calculator for this course. Texas Instruments BA-II Plus is recommended, but any brand or model of financial calculator, which can perform time-value-of money and cash flow calculations, is acceptable.
