5. Eligibility to Vote and Hold Office

The following is intended to capture an individual's primary relationship with Okanagan College and is used to determine who is eligible to nominate, be nominated, and vote for a vacancy on the Board or the Council. In circumstances where a Candidate or voter appears to fall into more than one category, the Registrar shall make the final determination about eligibility.

A voters list of eligible employees will be provided by the Associate Vice President of People Services to the Chief Elections Officer within a deadline set in the Election Schedule.

All Candidates

To be nominated and hold office, all Candidates must meet the following conditions:

- Not stand for election for more than one position covered by these rules at a time.
- Not hold elected seats on the Board of Governors and Education Council at the same time.

Should any elected representative not continue to be eligible to hold office during their term, they are immediately considered to have resigned their seat.

Faculty/Instructor Positions

Eligibility to

The Registrar may delay or refuse to conduct a by-election if, in their judgement after consultation with the representative groups, it is deemed to be unreasonable or because the timing would exclude a significant portion of an affected representative group.
