The personal information requested from you by library staff is collected under the authority of the College and Institute Act, RSBC 1996, C.52. It is used by library staff for circulation records, statistical reports and planning purposes. Information may be transferred to the Student Services Department, Registrar's Office, the Finance Department, the Security Department and the Police.